The Soviet Story – DVD usage licensing terms and conditions:

1. Private Home Use DVD:

This DVD is for people who wish to view the DVD at home. It cannot be used for public group screenings (with or without charge) or for any commercial public use.

2. Small Community Groups DVD:

In smaller community groups (including schools), the DVD can be shown internally to audiences of no more than 75 people at a time, at a non-public event, on the premises of the group. The screenings must be free of charge and are for the members of the respective community group. There is no restriction on how often the DVD can be screened internally.

3. Large Community Groups / Educational / Foundations DVD:

This DVD is for larger community groups, education institutions (colleges and universities) or foundations. The DVD can be used internally for unlimited screenings or can also be shown to groups of no more than 100 people at a time (internal and external), no more than 3 times a year, on the premises of the group. The screenings must be free of charge. If the institution wishes to license the DVD for use on its internal server, an additional charge of $100:00 applies.

4. Community Group Resellers of the DVD (package of 20 DVDs):

If you are a community group that wishes to sell copies of the DVD in your store, 20 copies of the Private Home Use DVD can be purchased in a package at a discounted price (-30%). This allows you to resell the DVD in your store to your community group or to the public with a mark-up as you see fit.

For any questions about DVD purchases please email: sovietstoryfilm@gmail.com or call +1-917-402-2853
